Episcopal Senior Communities is named among the Best Places to Work in the Bay Area by San Francisco Business Times/Silicon Valley/San Jose Business Times

Walnut Creek, Ca -- Episcopal Senior Communities (ESC), a public benefit, not for profit organization serving older adults since 1965, is pleased to announce that it has been recognized as one of the Best Places to Work in the Bay Area.

In accepting this special recognition on behalf of ESC, Dr. Harly Neumann, VP of Human Resources for the organization, stated "This is a wonderful and welcome affirmation of the work this organization does on behalf of employees to create a positive and stimulating work environment. ESC is proud to be identified as being among the Best Places to Work in the Bay Area and we are extremely grateful to have received this award."

Episcopal Senior Communities employs more than 1100 people on a full and part time basis who serve older adults in a wide range of roles across its various communities. The organization owns and operates Continuing Care Retirement Communities (CCRCs) throughout northern California, including Canterbury Woods in Pacific Grove; St. Paul's Towers in Oakland; Los Gatos Meadows in Los Gatos; Spring Lake Village in Santa Rosa; and San Francisco Towers in San Francisco. In addition, ESC's affordable senior housing communities include Presidio Gate Apartments in San Francisco; Oak Center Towers in Oakland; and Jennings Court in Santa Rosa and affiliate Lytton Gardens in Palo Alto. ESC's innovative and award winning community outreach programs serve more than 4500 non residents through its Senior Resources, Senior Center Without Walls and Senior Produce Markets.
